HAS VARIED DUTIES

Attorney McGinnis Represents Government in River Bed Cases.
 W. P. McGinnis of Muskogee, special assistant district attorney of the eastern district of Oklahoma, has been successful in conducting prosecutions here in the federal court during the present session. His last criminal case has been tried. Mr. McGinnis is a young lawyer who was appointed from Wilburton. In addition to his regular duties as prosecutor in the courts he also represents the government in the river bed cases. The river beds of the state which produce oil are claimed by the Indians as a tribe, are claimed by the state of Oklahoma and are also claimed by the riparian owners along the banks of the streams.

Mr. McGinnis said his visit here has been very pleasant. He likes the new federal building and likes to see the activity of a fast growing city, which it has been his pleasure to see here.

How Catarrh is Contracted.

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucous membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to make a public expression of our most sincere thanks to the friends of Jake Lewis, our son and brother, during his last illness, and for the words of comfort to us at his death. Only those who have given up a son know of the grief of a mother and only those who have been treated so kindly know of the appreciation our hearts feel for your extreme kindness and thoughtfulness. These are memories that can never be effaced.

Palace Today.

William S. Hart will be seen at the Palace Theatre today in the long-awaited Triangle Aztec story, "The Captive God." This play is from the pen of Monte M. Katterjohn, and offers Hart in a role that is totally unlike anything he has ever attempted since his desertion of the footlights for the film studio. The part is that of a stalwart Spaniard, who, shipwrecked in the early part of the sixteenth century, is adopted by the people of Tehuacan, in ancient Mexico, and made their leader because of his superior wisdom.

Never since he first entered the motion picture fold has Thomas H. Ince bent his effort toward the production of a drama like "The Captive God." He has preferred to let pass untouched that period of the world's history which contains some of the most interesting and unusual romances ever written. But when Katterjohn wrote "The Captive God" Ince saw in it the possibilities of a remarkable motion picture play.

With his customary care, Ince has incorporated a great amount of detail into this subject, and the result is a magnificent spectacle-romance.

OLD HICKORY CHIP

The Hughes campaign is one of Mexicanization.

There is a good deal of hot air in Zeppelin warfare.

Somehow or other we feel confident that Dohrdja would be the place where von Mackensen would be stopped.

Anyway the German armies are not so forward looking as they were a few months ago.

If Hughes should be elected and appoint negro postmasters it will then be too late for democrats to contribute to the Wilson campaign fund.

"Southern domination in politics" is the cry of the republicans against Woodrow Wilson and his party. They are hard up for an issue.

They say Billy Sunday will give Boston 10 weeks of his time. Boston will give Billy Sunday about $50,000 of its money.—Houston Post.
 Only $50,000? Billy must be giving bargain prices now.

It is understood that recent enormous purchases of iron and copper do not contemplate a reinforcement of the golden rule abroad.

Thanks are due the coal barons because this year they raised the price of coal without compelling the
